

Angie's Life Journey – What we know

Ethnicity: Asian British

Language: English

Nationality: British

Gender: Female

Disability: Needs walking aid for osteoarthritis, dyslexia

Address: Flat A

Additional information: Nephew is living with Angie as her carer.

Back Story:

Early Childhood:

- Angie was removed from her parents at 18 months, and her extended family took responsibility for her. She became looked after she was abandoned by her family, leading to several placements.

Adolescent:

- Angie was in and out of children's residential homes as a young person.

Education

- Due to moving placements she never settled at school, and her learning needs were not fully understood. Angie's dyslexia was diagnosed as an adult.
- Angie started smoking and drinking at 12 years old.

Adult life:

Dependents:

- None.

Health:

- Due to arthritis Angie self-medicates- she started using cannabis which is believed to have been supplied to her by her nephew who cares for her.
- There are now concerns she uses heroin.

Employment:

- Angie used to work as a receptionist but stopped due to ill health.
- Angie is in receipt of benefits.

Support Network:

- Nephew- Name not known.